

American Hornbeam

Carpinus caroliniana

- Category: Deciduous
- Growth Rate: Slow
- Adaptability: Full sun to full shade
- Shape: Oval
- Size: 25-50' tall, 15-25' wide
- Fall Color: Orange, red and yellow
- Wildlife Value: Seeds are consumed by yellow-rumped warbler.
- Description: Carpinus caroliniana, commonly called American hornbeam, is a slow-growing, deciduous, small to medium-sized understory tree with an attractive form.